The University of South Wales welcomes students from Ireland!

A short flight from Dublin, Cork or Belfast, with more than 33,000 students from all over the world, state-of-the-art facilities and teaching excellence, the University of South Wales is a great place to study. We offer undergraduate and postgraduate courses in a range of areas including nursing, teaching with QTS, medical sciences, sports science and rugby coaching, music and sound, photography and fashion.

What's on offer?

The University has campuses throughout South Wales, in Cardiff, Newport and Pontypridd. Our locations mean you can enjoy everything the region has to offer – city life and culture, stunning beaches and breathtaking countryside. Employability is at the heart of everything we do, with teaching informed by what happens in the real world. Our graduates have the skills that are essential for the workplace and value our employability schemes, business start-up support and opportunities to get actual experience, often as part of your course.

Fantastic Student Life

As part of our commitment to excellence, we have invested over £160m in state-of-the-art facilities across our campuses, to ensure you get the best possible learning experience – this includes a new Student’s Union packed full of exciting facilities and events! This all adds up to an excellent student experience and the best possible start to your future.

“With Cardiff to the South and the Brecon Beacons to the North, there’s never any shortage of activities at the University of South Wales! On the Treforest campus, the modern and attractive Students’ Union with its bars, restaurants and clubs means that student life here is great fun. The course tutors are very dedicated and experienced and share their insights on your chosen course. They go above and beyond to ensure an enjoyable education.”
